

LET IT BE REMEMBERED, That JAMES K. POLK, a man never thought of for President, has been nominated for that high office, for the single and sole reason that he has avowed himself in favor of IMMEDIATELY ANNEXING TEXAS TO THE U. STATES.
And let it also BE REMEMBERED, that those who procured his nomination now recommend it to the suffrages of the people of the North by the war-cry of "Texas or a dissolution of the Union."

Mr. Frelinghuysen has descended to address temperance meetings, for the purpose, we presume, of catching Washingtonian votes. We would censure our best friend, were he to adopt such a course. What! the candidate of a party for the Vice President's chair stoop to speak among a community of "reformed drunkards," a congregation of boys, women, and children! The thing is monstrous!—N. Y. Aurora.

The editor of the Aurora is not reformed, that's clear, or else he would not express himself so strongly about better men than himself.

The Wellsburg (Va.) Transcript states the singular fact that there is not now a public house licensed to sell intoxicating drinks in either of the counties of Brooke, Marshall, Tyler, or Marion, except one in that town.

The costly embankment built to protect the "City of Cairo," at the confluence of the Mississippi and Ohio rivers, has been tested by the late terrible floods, and found to be entirely effectual.

SANDS' SARSAPARILLA.—We know that each tissue and fibre of the body selects from the vital current the particles necessary for its growth and reparation. Of what importance, then, it is that this life-sustaining current should be pure! It is as impossible as it would be to distill the elixir vitae from the deadly nightshades that corrupt blood should produce healthy flesh, vigorous fibre, and a sound, well-regulated physical system. This is an axiom in physics which no sane man will deny. Assuming it, then, to be true, to subdue the developments of disease, its seeds existing in the blood, must be expelled from circulation. Experience, unimpeachable testimony, a "cloud of witnesses," attest that Sands' Sarsaparilla will perform this great work of purification. In King's Evil, Scrofula, Erysipelas, Swellings of the Bones, Dyspepsia, confirmed Rheumatism, Mercurial Diseases, the torpidity of the liver, and almost all disorders not organic in their character, it may be administered with confidence, and will justify in its results the hopes of the patient.

Prepared and sold, wholesale and retail, by A. B.
& D. SANDS, Wholesale Druggists, 79 Fulton st., New York. Price $1 per bottle; 6 bottles for $5.
Agents for Washington city.—ROBERT FARN-HAM, Bookseller, corner of Pennsylvania avenue and 11th street, and R. S. PATTERSON, Druggist, corner of Pennsylvania avenue and 9th street.

POWHATAN HOUSE.
RICHMOND, VIRGINIA.—On the 1st of April last this fashionable and popular Hotel passed into the hands of the subscriber, whose whole time and attention are directed to the comfort and gratification of his guests. It has just been repaired, and is now in good order for the reception of company. The accommodations are superior, and sufficient for 120 persons. Many of the rooms are large, and fitted up especially for the use of travelling families, and all are furnished with excellent beds and hair mattresses.
His table is served with every viand of the season, prepared in good old Virginia style.

To the old patrons of the house he would say that he has made many alterations and additions for the better; and he assures his friends, who have been in the habit of calling on him for the last ten years at the Dibernell Springs and the Warm Springs, that at the Powhatan House they will find him no less deserving their encouragement.

The position of the Powhatan House is decidedly the best in the city. It is elevated, dry, airy, unincumbered by other houses, and very near the business streets, railroad depots, steamboat, and packetboat landings.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.—Mr. William F. Bayly has placed upon our table an elegant fac simile edition of Blackwood's Magazine for June. We noticed the rich contents of the June number the other day. The fac simile edition is from the press of Leonard Scott & Co., New York, and is an elegant specimen of typography. The publishers announce that the New World edition will be discontinued from this time, when Messrs.
Scott & Co. will be without a competitor in the publication.

The politics of Blackwood have become much liberalised within a few years, so that good republicans can read its elegant articles without being insulted in every page, though we confess we often lose patience with the arrogant tone of toryism. The correct moral and religious tone of Blackwood, and of all the English reviews that we see, is worthy of all praise.
